RANGERS, AIR TRAFFIC AND HELICOPTER PILOT

EXT: CHOPPER - DAY

Bane lunges at the guard in the opening, dragging him out of the chopper. As they begin to fall, Bane grabs a grenade from a Ranger and makes an impossible throw right into the chopper [This implausible sounding task is possible because Bane is a meta-human, which will soon be revealed].

INT: CHOPPER - DAY

The two guards from the other side of the chopper rush over and immediately open fire without regard for their fellow Rangers.
